Powered by Childcare Intelligence

Hello! I'm your Nursery Finder Assistant. I can help you find local childcare, explain OFSTED ratings, or help you prepare questions for your first visit. What's on your mind today?

10:00 AM

I'm looking for a nursery in the Camden area that specializes in sensory play for toddlers.

10:02 AM

Excellent choice. Camden has 12 nurseries with high sensory focus.

I recommend starting with 'Little Explorers' near Regent's Park. They recently upgraded their sensory garden and have a 4.9 rating for their toddler curriculum.

Would you like me to check their availability or book a tour?

Great nursery overall. The only minor issue is parking during morning drop-off, which can get a bit congested. However, the quality of care and communication from teachers is top-notch.

The education is good, but I feel they could improve their outdoor playground area. It's a bit small for the number of children they have in the afternoon sessions.
